

Please be sure that radio stations like KLOVE aren't allowed to go off the air because of the LPFMs I have heard about. KLOVE has such a positive affect on my life and the life of my family and friends. When it's playing, nobody is offended by bad language or lyrics with sexual or violent content. Stations like this are in the best public interest to counteract and offer encouraging choices to the negative content projected by other stations. Personally, I listen to 91.9 FM
